A T a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Parkeville Hydropathic Institute, held fifth month 15th, 1850, Joseph A. Weder, M. D., was unanimously elected Resident Physician in the place of Dr. Dexter, resigned.
Having made various improvements, this institute is now prepared to receive an additional number of patients; and from Dr. Weder's well-known skill and practical experience in Europe, (acquired under Vinceuz Preissuitz, the founder of the Hydropathic system.) and for several years past in Dis country, and particularly in the city of Philadelphia, where he has had many patients.) the Managers believe the afflicted will find him an able and an attentive physician.

The domestic department being under the charge of a Steward and Matron, will enable the Doctor to devote to the patients whatever time may be necessary.

Office No. 68 South Fourth street, residence No. 10 Logan square, Philisdelphia.

General Description of the Parkeville Hydrogadhic Institute.

The main building is three stories high, standing back from the street about one hundred feet, with a semicircular grass plot in front, and contains thirty to forty rooms. The grounds around the house are tastefully laid out with walks and planted with trees; shrubs, &c. On the left of the mirrane to these grounds is a cottage containing four walks and planted with trees, shrubs, ac. On the set of the entrance to these grounds is a cottage containing four rooms, used by male patients as a bothing house, with every convenience for "packing," bathing, &c.; on the right of the entrance, about two hundred feet distant, stands a similar cottage, used by the ladies for similar

In the rear of the Institute, at the distance of one hundred feet, are three other cottages, some eighty feet apart. One of these is the laundry, with a hydrant at the door; the other two are occupied by the servants.

The hydrant water is introduced into these cottages as well as into the main building, and all the waste water ried off by drains under ground.

carried of by drains under ground.

THE WATER WORES

Consist of a circular stone building, standing on the brow of a hill, surmounted by a large cedar reservoir containing five hundred barrels, brought from a never-failing spring of pure cold water in the side of the hill, by "a hydraulic ram," a selfacting machine of cast from that is kept constantly going, night and day, by the descent of the water from the spring. The surplus water is carried from the reservoir to a fountain in the water-works yard, surrounded by weeping willows. In the first story of the water-works is a circular room, containing the douche bath, which is a stream falling from a height of about thirty feet, and can be varied in size from half an inch to an inch and a half in diameter. Adjoining the douche room is a dressing room, with marble tables, &c.; the rising douche (for the cure of piles, &c.) is one of the most complete contrivurees of the kind, being entirely under the control of the patient using the same.

Mexican war; with three hundred engravings! Retail price, $2 50 per volume. Orders respectfully solicited.

SEARS PICTORIAL FAMILY PUBLICATIONS are decidedly the best books that agents can possibly employ their time in supplying to the people of the United States. They are valuable for reference, and should be possessed by every family in this great republic. There is not a city or town in these United States, not even those of small importance, but contains many cilizens to whom these works are indispensable. They are adapted to the literary wants of the Christian, the patriot, the statesman, and the domestic circle, got up in a superior style of art and workmanship; and are not only such books as will sell, but are such as an agent of good principle will feel free to recommend, and willing to see the purchaser again after they have been bought.

Our Plan.—The plan the publisher has so successfully can ried out for several years, is the obtaining responsible. Cowns, and villages, and have time and disposition to circulate good and instructive books sinong their neighbors and friends. Any person wishing to embark in the enterprise will risk little in sending $25 or $50, for which he enterprise will risk little in sending $25 or $50, for which he enterprise will risk little in sending $25 or $50, for which he will receive an assortment as he may direct, at the wholesale cash prices.

Enterprising and scrive men of respectability and good address, would do well to engage in the sale of the above volumes; and all postmasters, clergymen, book pediar, and newspaper agents, are respectfully requested to act as our agents. A handsome remuneration allowed to all who engage in their sale. For particulars address, post paid,

CAPE MAY, July 21, 1851. Journey thither via New York-A Storm at Sea-Safely Arrived-Crowded Hotels-Bathing-The Hotels.

After a most circuitous journey via Philadelphia and New York, we arrived here yesterday Sunday) to breakfast. The travel to this place from Washington is much more direct and com-fortable by Newcastle, Delaware, or even by Philadelphia, than the route we took; but never having been to sea, we were anxious to have a view of Old Neptune's domains. We left New York at 5 p. m. on Saturday, with 250 passengers, and scarcely had we passed Sandy Hook, when several of the ladies began to grow pale, as did some of the gentlemen, and the captain decided they were "sea sick;" upon which announcement about 100 of our passengers re-luctantly gave unto the sea the supper for which they had just paid 50 cents each. It was really amusing to see them struggling so hard against it, but the sea demanded the contents of their stomachs, and despite of them it would come up. We were not affected by the voyage, and enjoyed it much. About midnight, however, just as the moon was rising to show us the beautiful waters of the Atlantic crowded with sails, a black cloud arose, and with it a most terrific thunder-storm. The lightning flashed, and the thunder, peal after peal, roured like artillery; rain fell as if the heavens had opened; the sea raged, and the maddened waves dashed against and over our good steamer to the great alarm of all on board; ladies screamed. children cried; gentlemen, unable to stand erect, held on to anything that would sustain them; ever and anon our boat was tossed seemingly quite out of the water, and then would immediately go down between the waves, as if in search of the bottom of the sea; every timber of the boat creaked as if it would part at ten thousand places and leave us to battle with the roaring element. At every flash of light-ning we could behold the sea for miles and Mr. Where the presented the petition of Geo.

S. Gideon and others, owners of property on South Capitol street, praying that the law reour own danger, but that of others in the same cently passed authorizing Samuel Byington to situation. A schooner which seemed to have been grade said street may not be repealed, but cargiven up to the mercy of the ocean was within an inch of being run down by us, when a voice as on metion, referred to the committee last named. if from the grave attracted our attention to it, Mr. HUTCHINGSON, on leave, introduced a bill and just in time our helmsman steered to leeinhart; most miraculously i abated—the moon reappeared—the waters were more tranquil, and we found, greatly to our satisfaction, that after "every storm there is a calm." We had just passed through what we had supposed only existed in the wild imaginaion of some fanciful painter; but we are unable to write half a picture of the reality. Cape May is the most delightful spot on earth jutting out between the majestic Atlantic ocean and the Delaware bay; the air is always cool and bracing, and while you have the thermometer at ninety-four, we enjoy the refreshing breeze so strong as to require our hats to be tied upor our heads. But the bathing is "glorious—there are six thousand persons now at the Capes, coming from all parts of the country; they form complete congress, differing, however, your national assembly, in the fact that here all are contributing to the pleasure and comfort of each other. The daily arrivals are say five aundred persons, and the number of visiters before the 1st of August may increase to twelve thousand. We will not attempt a description of the ocean shore, at bathing hour, (11 a. m.,) but you may imagine the sight produced by six thousand persons, men, women and children, dressed most fantastically, (so as scarcely to recognise each other,) being in the water at once, contending with the dashing waves and riding upon their summit; at the same instant the whole crowd is lifted up by the surf, and as it spreads itself they are let down again into two eet water, most pleasantly and delightfully, though sometimes all thrown together in one nixed mass-like a big tub-full of eels. Beside bathing, we have every sort of amuse-ment, splendid rides, delightful walks, boating, fishing. fishing, balls, hops, polka dances, concerts, fire-works, &c., &c., ac., matines and sociales. The hotels are crowded to excess. Some of is are sleeping in the stable lofts, and, were it not for the departures which every morning take place, there would be "no room for us in the inns." By good luck, we found a room in the sixth story of the United States Hotel, for which we feel thankful to the prince of bosts, Mr. Tompkins, and his gentlemanly clerks. Without desiring to disparage the several other hotels of this island, we must say that the U. s, hatel is equal to the best in the country. The table cannot be surpassed, if equalle Cleanliness and neatness and order prevail in every part of the large premises. The waiters are polite and attentive; and who cannot be are polite and attentive; and who cannot be comfortable and happy with Mr. and Mrs.

As you may suppose, there is a good deal of aristocracy here; and if we know of any thing to complain of, it is that wealthy families are llowed to have their own servants to attend them. Every day is as a Sunday; all the churches are open for divine service every morning, and temperance seems to prevail

Tompkins, cannot be so anywhere else.

Bathing at Cape May is like making dipped candles every time you go into the fluid you gain weight. Without time to read over what we have written, we must hurry this with all its imperfections into the mail.
